It Takes a Village

Hello Friends,

We all know it takes a village to raise a child. It's also going to take a village to raise enough awareness to defeat the upcoming anti-family amendment. The simple fact is many Minnesotans don't think about marriage equality. They don't know what's at stake for the families this amendment would affect.

This is where you, our friends, come in. We need you to spread the word. You can start by liking our Facebook page and then suggest to ten of your friends to do the same. Ask those same friends to sign up for this newsletter on our new website. Follow us on Twitter @mn4allfamilies and retweet our news. We need you to help us defeat this amendment.

We've been growing our village one person at a time. Can you help us meet our goal of 10,000 Facebook likes and 1,200 Twitter followers by Labor Day?

We can defeat this anti-family amendment. We can be the first state in our union to stand up for all families. But we cannot do it alone. It's going to take a village to defeat this amendment and stand up for all families.

Sincerely,

Minnesotans United for All Families
